

MILLFIELDS
TRUST

Supporting Business and the Community

In line with approved planning policy, improvements are being proposed for The Millfields Trust site on Union Street (near the HQ business centre).

Devised by members of the local community for the people who live and work in Stonehouse.

The Millfields Trust is a partnership of the local community, local businesses and the City Council. As a trading social enterprise, it works together to improve Stonehouse and re-invests all profits back into the area. If you are over 18 and live or run a business in Stonehouse you can become a member, director or a volunteer for the Millfields Trust.

How will it affect you?
